Dear Sir and RW/VW/W/Brother/ME/E/Companion,

Sub:- Protocol to be observed in addressing communication to MW the Grand Master/ME the Grand Principal

Attention is invited to Rule 16 of the Book of Constitutions which mentions that to communicate on any masonic matter shall be made to Grand Master only through the Grand Secretary. It is observed that in spite of this provision, Lodges/Chapters/Brethren continue to address communication direct to MW the Grand Master and to the Grand Lodge, about matters which concerns internal working of that Lodges or which have referred to individual members. Letters for the Grand Lodge from daughter Lodges should be addressed to the Regional Grand Secretary who will then forward the same to the Grand Lodge after consultation with the Regional Grand Master. Any communication sent directly to Grand Lodge will not be entertained.

With best wishes

Yours fraternally

AJAY BHARGAVA
